

INTEGRATED POLICY

The integrated policy applied by EASTSHIP PROJECT & LOGISTICS SRL in the field of quality, environment, health and safety at work are the bases of the management's commitment to providing services that meet the requirements of needs in conditions of efficiency and effectiveness, without significantly affecting the environment and ensuring health and safety at work, according to the policy defined and assumed by management.

In order to achieve these objectives, the application of the provisions of the integrated management manual is mandatory for employees, acting consistently to achieve the objectives derived from this policy, taking into account the risks and opportunities determined and considering the life cycle of the products involved in the operation of the processes.

The management is committed to maintaining and developing the integrated management system according to the requirements of the company ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001:2018, so as to continuously create the effectiveness of the process and the stability of the company's activity, to reduce pollution and the negative impact on the environment, continuous improvement and ensuring safety and health at work.

The general objectives of the company in the field of quality, environment, health and safety at work are oriented in the following directions:

- Increasing the competitiveness of the services provided through the qualification, training and experience of employees, as well as through their proven competence.
- Ensuring the necessary human, material, informational and infrastructural resources, continuous system effectiveness, creating the work environment, so as to achieve compliance with the determined requirements.
- Process management in accordance with standard reference requirements for the achievement and continuous development of performance in the field of quality - environment - occupational health and safety and the effectiveness of the integrated management system.
- Fulfilling the specific compliance obligations of the organization, applicable to the companies' activities in the field of quality - environment - safety and health at work.
- Prevention of pollution, work accidents and occupational diseases.
- Efficient management of waste resulting from the company's activities.
- Planning and making changes to the integrated management system in such a way as to preserve its integrity
- Determining environmental aspects and evaluating their impacts, taking into account the life cycle of its materials and services provided.

Date: 14.03.2022

